JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: TIME SERVED.

The Court ORDERS the defendant to pay to the United States a special assessment of $200.00, to the Clerk of the Court, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, DANIEL MONTANO-PEREZ, is, hereby, committed on Counts ONE and FOUR of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of TIME SERVED, with the defendant's conviction on Count FIVE being vacated.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of THREE years on Counts 1 and 4, under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation Office and General Order 318.
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.

4. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States and Bureau of Immigration, and if deported from this country, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not reenter the United States illegally. The defendant is not required to report to the Probation Office while residing outside the United States; however, within 72 hours of release from any custody or any reentry to the United States during the period of Court-ordered supervision, the defendant shall report for instructions to the U. S. Probation Office, located at the US Courthouse 312 N. Spring St. Room 600, Los Angeles, CA 90012.

5. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer; further, the defendant shall not use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name.

6. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;

7. The defendant shall not associate with any member of any criminal gang or disruptive group as directed by the Probation Officer. The Court informs the defendant of his right to appeal. The Court further orders this defendant released forthwith to the Bureau of Immigration as they have a hold on this defendant.

Justification is as stated today on the record.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Pre-sentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency.

Further disclosure of the Pre-sentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
